INTROIT

Intret oratio mea — Psalm 88

Let my prayer come in before thee: incline thy ear to my petition, O Lord. Psalm. O Lord the God of my salvation: I have cried in the day, and in the night before thee.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Favourably look down upon thy people, we beseech thee, O Lord, and mercifully turn away from them the scourges of thy anger. Through, &c.

Introit and collect: Husenbeth, The Missal for the Use of the Laity (London, 1853) — Saturday, Ember Day, public domain (historic Western propers; not from Lutheran service books). Readings per The Lutheran Missal, “Lenten Lections” (2020).
