INTROIT

Ego clamavi — Psalm 17

I have cried, for thou, O God, hast heard me: O incline thine ear and hear my words: keep me, O Lord, as the apple of thy eye: protect me under the shadow of thy wings. Psalm. Hear, O Lord, my justice: attend to my prayer.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Graciously hear us, O Almighty and merciful God; and favourably grant to us the gifts of wholesome self-denial. Through, &c.

Introit and collect: Husenbeth, The Missal for the Use of the Laity (London, 1853) — Tuesday, Third Week, public domain (historic Western propers; not from Lutheran service books). Readings per The Lutheran Missal, “Lenten Lections” (2020).
